

BEAUTY BUZZ

CONCISE
FEATURES

Beverly Hills Blonde

You may recognize Tiffani Thiessen from her roles on Saved by the Bell, Beverly Hills, 90210 or Just Shoot Me—but you may not recognize her new hair hue and 'do! In a dramatic color move, Tiffani has ditched her beautiful brown locks for bright blonde. Wondering how you can steal her new cut? It's a heavily layered design styled with a blow-dryer, then smoothed over with a flat iron for a straight and spiky appeal. Don't forget to catch Tiffani in her new movie, Woody Allen's Hollywood Ending!

Photo: Steve Granitz/WireImage.com.

Make Your Mouth Happy

Looking for a lipstick that will stay vibrant all night? Lancôme has come to your lips' aid with its new Rouge Attraction Lasting Impact LipColour line—18 shades of pouty perfection! From corals to pinks to ravishing reds, Rouge Attraction is formulated to stay soft and last for hours. Individual shades retail for about $20 and are available at department stores nationwide.

Photos: Courtesy of Lancôme.

Caught Red-Headed!

For ladies who love red hair—and we mean really red hair—Matrix has created a brand-new salon service guaranteed to give crimson highlights on natural or color-treated hair: The Redlights Color Highlighting System. In just 15 minutes of processing time, you can add one of the four Redlights tones to your hair—Red Copper, Copper, Red or Red Violet.

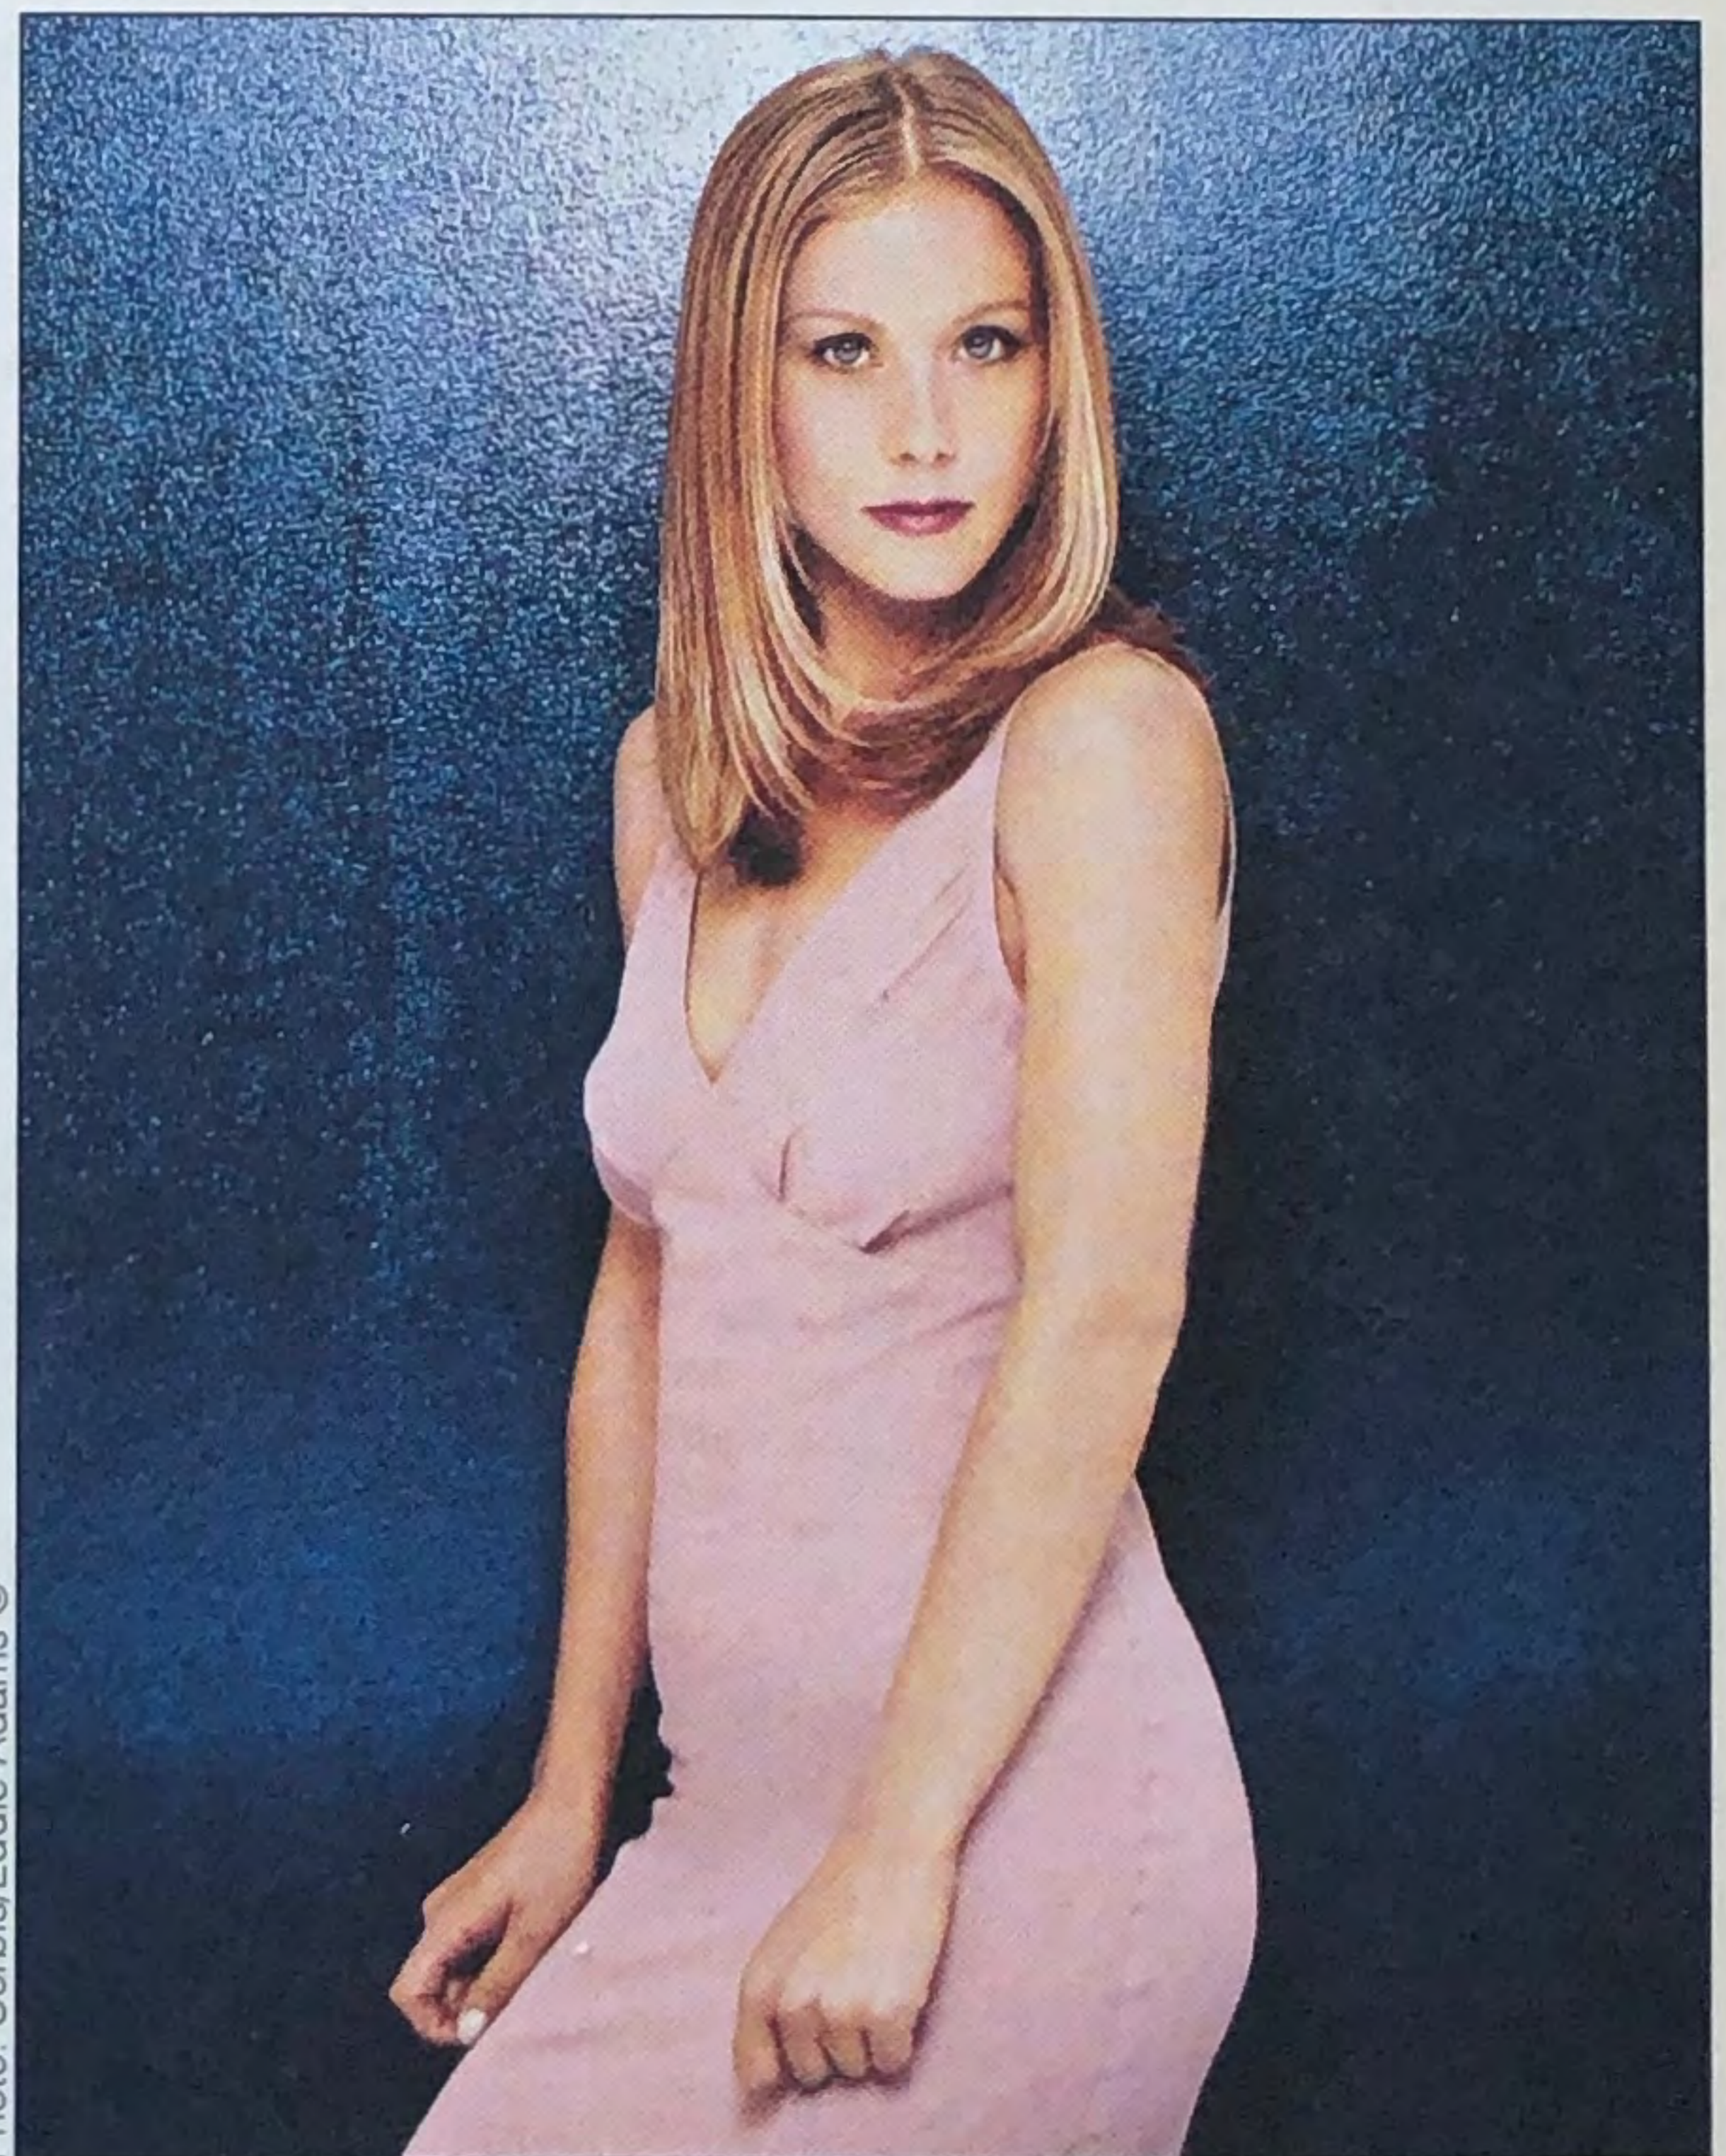

Photo: Courtesy of Matrix.

Soap Star, Mom, Make-up Maven...

Actress Hunter Tylo is known for her work on The Bold and the Beautiful—and she's proven she is both with her makeup line, Chosen by Hunter Tylo. The Texas native and mother of four is donating a portion of all proceeds to her Hunter's Chosen Child foundation, which assists pregnant mothers and provides legal guidelines for discrimination in the workplace, and Retinoblastoma International, an organization that helps children afflicted with cancer of the retina. For more information, visit www.chosenbyhuntertylo.com.

Photo: Corbis/Eddie Adams ©

“I'm not into beauty products. You know, I read about these women who always have this shade of M.A.C. lipstick in their purse...I look in my purse, and there's gum!”

—Christina Applegate